We are pleased to announce the 5th annual Degenerate Craft Fair!

Created for artists, by artists, the Degenerate Craft Fair is not your average craft fair. The DCF transcends the line between art and craft, showcasing artists selling affordable versions of their work, dedicated craftmakers who take unconventional approaches toward traditional techniques, and even small independent businesses that produce their own honey, lotions, and soaps.

This year's fair returns to the DCTV Firehouse. We will feature over 40 vendors, with most items selling for under $50. So stop by the Degenerate Craft Fair to find the perfect handmade gifts for everyone on your shopping list!
